1 Monitoring and Emergency Services

This group is not monitored 24 hours a day. Emergency support is not available through this site. If you are experiencing an emergency, life threatening situation, or are aware of any form of abuse of an individual, contact emergency personnel (in the US, dial 9-1-1). If you have suicidal thoughts or intentions, contact National Suicide Hotline, 1-800-273-8255, or emergency personnel. Any member who discloses intentions to take harmful, dangerous, or criminal action against someone or themselves will necessitate the group administrators to warn appropriate individuals and police.

2 Joining, Posting, and Participation in the Group

Membership is subject to the review and acceptance of these terms and conditions and any subsequent revisions or updates- while a current member or at any time in the future if I leave the group.

3 Personal and Confidential Information About Members

You agree to maintain confidentiality of all members and to not reveal information that is shared within the group to any person or group outside of this group.

4 Your Personal and Confidential Information

Although good faith efforts have been taken to preserve participant confidentiality, no guarantees can be made in this regard or to information communicated by and between members of this group.

5 Content

Any posted content may be deleted if deemed inappropriate by group administrators, in their sole discretion. Do not post offensive or hurtful content. Do not post content that is not your own or that you do not have permission to post. Do not post content advertising goods or services or to solicit contributions.

6 Giving Medical Advice is Prohibited

Information pertaining to your health should be reviewed with a physician. No information on this site should be construed as a substitute for professional treatment.

7 Termination of Membership

You understand that breaking of this agreement could result in the termination of my membership.

8 Professional Use of Content of this Group

Group administrators reserve the right to discuss matters disclosed by group members for the purpose of receiving supervision, providing oversight, and conducting statistical analysis.
